SCHEDULING ORDER

The attorneys are ORDERED to conduct a pre-trial conference on or before October 12, 2022. Local Criminal Rule 16.1(b).

All pretrial motions, including motions to compel discovery, motions to suppress, and motions under Rules 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 16, and 41 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, shall be filed no later than October 26, 2022. Responses to motions shall be filed no later than November 2, 2022. Untimely motions and motions filed in disregard of Local Criminal Rules 12.2 and 16.1, may be summarily denied. Motion hearings, as necessary, shall be conducted by a district or magistrate judge in advance of trial.

This case is set for arraignment and trial at that term of criminal court commencing on November 8, 2022, before the Court, in New Bern, North Carolina. Where trial is anticipated and the parties do not contemplate need for delay between arraignment and trial, as permitted by the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h), counsel for each party shall file with the clerk and transmit electronically to Judge Flanagan on or before seven days prior to date of arraignment (1) a list of voir dire questions as required by Local Criminal Rule 24.2; and (2) requests for jury instructions¹. Local Criminal Rule 24.1. The electronic copies shall be transmitted in WordPerfect or Word format to proposedorders_nced@nced.uscourts.gov.

Any motion in limine shall be filed not later than seven days prior to the start of trial where the question or issue bearing on admissibility of evidence reasonably can be contemplated in advance. Where “on a party’s motion, the court may hold one or more pretrial conferences to promote a fair and expeditious trial[.]” Fed. R. Crim. P. 17.1, the parties are encouraged to move for such conference if deemed appropriate.

Pursuant to Local Criminal Rule 24.1(c), if a party has a need for any type of courtroom technology for a hearing or trial, including but not limited to any audio equipment, video equipment, document presentation system, and jury evidentiary recording system, counsel must notify the case manager and request training from the court’s information technology staff for the person or persons who will be operating the courtroom technology. Unless excepted by the clerk, no later than seven days before the scheduled proceeding, counsel must file a certification provided by the court’s technology staff that training has been completed.

Counsel should review all related documentation appearing on the court’s website², including information concerning formatting of evidentiary DVDs. It is incumbent upon counsel to alert the Case Manager, Susan Tripp, at (252) 638-8534 of any issues pertaining to evidence presentation and compatibility of evidence with courtroom technology.

Any request for a continuance of arraignment and trial must recite a basis for good cause to enable the court to make Speedy Trial Act findings pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h), and it must be filed not later than seven days prior to arraignment. A continuance request failing to meet these requirements, absent extenuating circumstance, summarily may be denied.

SO ORDERED, this the 21st day of September, 2022.

LOUISE W. FLANAGAN
United States District Judge
